A GOOD RIDDANCE.

Deadly Shooting Scrape Between New York Roughs.

Two Notorious Criminals Settle an Old Grudge—Opening Fire Upon One Another at Sight Without a Word of Warning—After Several Shots Both Fall Dead in Their Tracks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A shooting affray which resulted in the killing of two notorious criminals occurred early in the morning in the saloon kept by Tom Shaug, Draper, No. 466 Sixth avenue. From what can be learned it appears that one John Walsh alias Johnny the Mick, with several other notorious characters was drinking at the bar, and while so engaged Johnny Irving, the graceless nephew of ex-Alderman Leask, in company with Bill Porter, another notorious criminal and fast friend of Irving's entered by the side door.

It is said that while Porter was in prison in Brooklyn, Walsh made a disparaging remark, which was taken to Porter, and the latter swore to have revenge. Others say that after Porter broke jail in Brooklyn, Walsh betrayed him. Irving immediately on seeing Walsh, and without a word of warning, commenced firing on him. Walsh started for a back room, Irving following, firing as he went. Walsh tried to dodge between the ice box and the end of the bar, while he was retreating, and then appears to have drawn his revolver. Then he dashed into the billiard room, where it is supposed both fired at short range. As if some one had fallen, followed by another of similar character, was then heard, and the firing ceased. The occupants of the bar-room, who had secreted themselves in an out of the way nook, then rushed into the billiard room where a terrible sight met their gaze. Irving was lying stone dead near the north wall of the room with his head toward the door. Walsh lay south of him writhing in the last agonies of death. Each man's pistol lay near him. Irving's fatal wound was near his right ear. Walsh had a fatal wound in the left side, and another bullet had plowed through the middle knuckle and upper part of his left hand. Irving's pistol was a Smith & Wesson, of heavy caliber and of most recent make. Four shots had been discharged from it. Walsh had a Forehand & Wadsworth pistol, and one chamber alone was empty. What Porter did after the firing of the first shot by Irving no one appears to know, but as soon as the firing ceased he dashed out the side entrance, and was running across the street, when Patrick Leary, who followed him and called upon Detective Hickey, who had been attracted by the firing, to arrest him. Hickey immediately seized the flying fugitive, and thrusting his hand into Porter's right overcoat pocket, found a self-loading Smith & Wesson revolver of similar pattern to Irving's. Three cartridges had recently been discharged from it. Porter was taken to police headquarters.

Officer McCool, who had the post on which the murder was committed, arriving on the scene gave the alarm, bringing Officers Price, Gallagher and Fay to his assistance. Leaving these three to guard Draper's saloon and prevent any one from leaving it, he proceeded to the station house and reported the case to the Sergeant. Captain Williams, who was in bed at the time, hearing of the tragedy hastily dressed and with a squad of men proceeded to the saloon when he found all the witnesses to the affair except one man, named Fay. The other witnesses taken into custody were Draper, the proprietor, the notorious bank burglar, Red Leary, and four others, Patrick Leary, Hays, Vosburg and Roth. They were all locked up in the Twenty-ninth Precinct Station. The bodies of Irving and Walsh were carried on stretchers to the dry room of the station house. Here they were searched by the order of Captain Williams. Irving, whose face was attenuated but wore a smile, had a heavy mustache and stubby beard. He wore a suit of Bannockburn tweed, a dark grey overcoat and derby hat and gaiters. In his pockets were $4, a gold watch and chain, a gold scarf pin collar and cuff buttons, two keys, a hotel check and a memorandum book. Walsh wore a full, fiercely red beard. His features had a stolid and stern expression. He had on a diagonal coat and vest of fashionable cut, dark purple trousers, a summer overcoat of diagonal cloth and a derby hat. In his pockets and possession were $107.80, a gold watch and chain, a gold shirt stud, a cameo ring and cameo sleeve buttons, four rings, a key and comb. The detained witnesses looked unconcerned at the dead men, around whom they formed a semi-circle, and now and then cracked ghastly jokes. Coroner Martin, who was summoned, held a preliminary examination. All those found in the saloon were examined and their evidence detailed the circumstances of the shooting as given above, but no light was thrown on Porter's action during the shooting. The witnesses all stated that they got under cover and did not see what he did.

Coroner Martin, at the conclusion of the testimony, allowed Draper and Leary to go, and a permit was given to allow the removal of the bodies to the Morgue. Captain Williams, in searching Draper's saloon, found a bullet that would fit no pistol but Porter's.

Ferryboat Collision.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Two ferry boats came into collision on the North River last night. They were the Pavana, of the Erie Railway, and the Weehawken, of the Hoboken Line. Each pilot attributes the collision to the carelessness of the other. Captain Spicer, of the Weehawken, has preferred a complaint against those in charge of the Pavana. Several persons were slightly hurt, but none were killed.

NEW CABLES.

A Company Formed With Ex-Postmaster General James as President.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A new cable company, which probably will be called the Merchants, has been formed for the purpose of laying two cables between this country and England. Ex-Postmaster General James has accepted the Presidency of the company. The Board of Directors includes representatives of prominent business houses of this country and Europe, and among them are David A. Bingham, of David Bingham, of Liverpool; A. D. Strauss, of A. D. Strauss & Co., also a foreign firm; E. R. Livermore, of E. R. & R. B. Livermore; John F. Plummer, of Pomeroy & Plummer; John H. Herbert, of Herbert & Allen; Wm. H. Guion, of Williams & Guion; S. A. Quinland, and Alexander P. Rice, ex-Governor of Massachusetts. The capital stock of the company will be $6,000,000 and bonds will be issued for a like amount. No contract has been completed for the building of the cables, but negotiations are approaching, it is said, a successful termination. The cables are of a new kind and possess peculiar advantages, directors of the company assert, over any cables now in operation. The cable will be landed on Long Island, but the landing on the English side has not yet been selected.

ADA ATKINSON.

Military Called Out to Protect Her Murderer.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Fowler, Ind., at two this morning says: At 12:30 a. m. the mob began to gather at the jail again, but no violence was attempted. It was thought that Joe Atkinson, an uncle of the murdered girl, would appear with a company from Warren county, but the alarm proved to be false. About twenty men were on duty in the jail, but they are not frightened. Another despatch from Lafayette, Ind., says: In compliance with a request of Sheriff Scanlon, of Benton county, for assistance, Adjutant General Camahan, late last night, ordered out Company C, of this city, with orders to report Wednesday morning. They will be taken to Fowler on an early train. The Adjutant General is now here.

Interesting Will Case.

JAMAICA, L. I., Oct. 17.—The Surrogate of Queen's county has rendered an important decision in regard to the Miller estate valued at $50,000. Dr. Wm. Miller, of New York, had four daughters at the time of his second marriage. He gave his last wife deeds of real estate and left her all his property in his will, thus disinheriting his daughters. After his death Mrs. Miller, who had no children, adopted a girl and named her Lillie May Miller. Mrs. Miller made a will bequeathing all of her estate to the adopted child. She had no heirs. Lillie May, who was also without heirs, died suddenly of diphtheria. The Surrogate now decides that the property reverts to Dr. Miller's four daughters by his first marriage.

An Actress' Mash.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mlle. Nixon has incoincidentally left the Maurice Grau Opera Company, and is about to go to San Francisco with a young man whose attention she attracted while playing under Miss Aimee at the Fifth Avenue Theater. The lady was under a $3,000 forfeit in case her engagement was broken, and this amount was paid by the lover and the actress was given her freedom. Mr. Grau has now to hunt a new Bocaccio.

Epidemic of Malignant Diphtheria.

VERONA, Wis., Oct. 17.—Malignant diphtheria has broken out in this little town and the surrounding country with deadly results. The sole remaining member of the family of Thomas Stewart, only last Saturday a prosperous and healthy farmer, is dying. He and his three daughters were buried yesterday. Several other deaths have occurred. The disease is spreading and a panic prevails.

A Bad Blow to Manitoba.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 17.—Reports from the wheat crop in the Manitoba district show a bad state of affairs, the crop having been frozen in the milk and rendered valueless. The crop was abundant enough and the farmers had great hopes, but it is now doubtful whether the country north of the Canada line can be depended upon for anything like permanent crops.

The Defaulting Ironton Bank Teller.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—W. S. Kirker, the teller of the Second National Bank at Ironton, and whose suspicious absence since Saturday attracted an investigation, is discovered to be a defaulter to the extent of $10,000, and to have taken with him over four thousand of his own securities, held by the bank to cover his notes. The bank has sent detectives after him, but with little hope of securing his arrest.

Murdered by Highwaymen.

LONG BEACH, L. I., N. Y., Oct. 17.—Wm. Nelson, a respected resident of White Bridge, aged 63 years, was waylaid by three unknown ruffians as he was returning from church at Branchville last Sunday evening, robbed of his watch and about $18 in money, and brutally beaten. He was found lying senseless in the woods yesterday morning and died last night. There is no clue to the murderers.

A Brute Gets Off With a Ridiculous Sentence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Ex-Policeman Maurice McNamara, who has been on trial for the past two days on a charge of clubbing to death the sailor John Smith, on Aug. 29, was found guilty this morning of manslaughter in the third degree. The punishment is one year imprisonment and a fine of $500. The verdict took every one in the court room by surprise.

BOSTON'S FORGER.

The Two Halperts Who Are Under Arrest.

Mysterious Movements of Two Men Supposed to be Brothers—Officers on the Way to San Francisco—The Texas Halpert and His Antecedents.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—A special from San Antonio, Texas, says: In the District Court yesterday the habeas corpus case of Robt. Halpert, alleged to be implicated in the forgery of a $50,000 check on Kidder, Peabody & Co., of Boston, came up and was postponed until the return of the Boston officers from San Francisco, where Halpert has a brother who is thought to be the actual perpetrator of the forgery, and who is also under arrest. Judge Moonan vacated the original bond of $100,000, and Halpert is now under a second bond of like amount. A correspondent had a conversation with F. Gross, of the firm of Gross & Co., bankers here, at whose instance Halpert was arrested. His first attempt to obtain money here was made on Lockwood & Kampman's bank, but they refused him. He then applied to Gross for 100,000 marks which he desired to take to Mexico and dispose of there to merchants doing business with Europe. He also expressed a desire to purchase $3,000 in Mexican gold, which made his demand aggregate $27,000. Shortly after his departure from the bank it occurred to Mr. Gross that this man might be the much wanted Boston forger. When he appeared and was known under the name of Dewey the officers were put after him, but for three days were unable to find him. He was seen on the fourth day by Mr. Gross' son, who followed him and secured his arrest. The name of Halpert which he gave was telegraphed to Boston, and luckily, just at that time, it was learned that Dewey, who had operated in Indiana and elsewhere, was really one Halpert, and this was supposed to be the man. About this time another Halpert was arrested in San Francisco. The Boston firm ordered both to be held, and say they wanted the men more than the money they had lost. Robert Halpert held here is beyond doubt a brother of Halpert, alias Dewey. It is also concluded on the best of grounds that the brother here has been operating with his brother now under arrest at San Francisco, and the money desired to be negotiated for here was actually based on the results of the Boston leather forgeries, which aggregate about $100,000. Robert Halpert will have no difficulty in proving that he has been constantly in this city for many months past, and he is backed by many wealthy Israelites here who regard him as innocent, and so the question of his connection with the forgeries depends upon proving that he has acted as an accomplice.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 17.—The Chronicle in its issue of to-day publishes a statement to the effect that Halpert, the alleged Boston forger, drew drafts amounting to $48,000 through Daniel Meyer, of this city, on Roschheim & Co., Berlin, two days previous to his arrest and forwarded them, expecting soon to follow and cash them.

Mr. Warden's Troubles.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—George Warden, the defaulting Secretary of the River Plate Bank, was committed for trial yesterday. He was subsequently brought into court as a witness against John Walters, the broker who was arrested on Saturday charged with stealing and receiving bonds which had been deposited with the bank. Warden's testimony showed enormous recklessness in stock gambling. He charged Walters with having incited him to abstract and dispose of the securities of the bank and claimed that to Walters' influence alone was the default due.

Cape Cod Ship Canal.

SANDWICH, Mass., Oct. 17.—Assistant Engineer C. M. Thompson, of the Cape Cod Ship Canal, arrived here this morning with one hundred men to be employed on the Canal. Another one hundred workmen are expected in one or two days. Work will commence to day on the Barnstable bay side, at which location the first $25,000 will be expended. The company has bids out for the construction of the iron bridge that is to span the Monument River. The structure is to be 240 feet in length, with two railway tracks and ways for vehicles and pedestrians.

Sudden Case of Insanity.

QUINCY, Mass., Oct. 17.—John Mahan, a section hand on the Old Colony Railroad, jumped through the window of his sleeping room yesterday morning and fled into the woods clad in nothing but his night clothes. Parties started in search of him, but nothing was heard from him until noon, when he was seen to jump in a pond at Randolph, eight miles distant, and was rescued from drowning. The cause of his insanity is not known.

Death of James Lloyd Greene.

NORWICH, Conn., Oct. 17.—James Lloyd Greene, a prominent manufacturer and for several years Mayor of the city, Republican candidate for Governor in 1875, and intimately connected with various business and public interests, died suddenly yesterday at Saranac Lake, Adirondac mountains, of pneumonia, aged 56 years. He had been in the Adirondacs for several weeks on a hunting tour.

A Bunkoed Farmer.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 17.—A farmer from New Berlin, while intoxicated last night, was induced by a saloon keeper to sign a paper transferring to him $1,700 in the Second Ward Bank. The money and other valuables have been withdrawn from the bank and the bunkoed granger has no redress.

ARIZONA'S WEALTH.

Synopsis of the Recent Report of the Governor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Governor Tritle, of Arizona, has submitted a report to the Secretary of the Interior concerning the period of two fiscal years to June 30, 1883. He states that there are now 75,000 people in the Territory with a taxable property of $20,000,000. He regards the causes that have heretofore operated to check the progress of the Territory in advancement as well under control. He considers the country properly adapted to cattle raising. The mineral resources of the Territory are rich, but comparatively undeveloped. It is no unusual matter to have silver ore assay from $1,000 $5,000 to the ton. The production of gold and silver was $9,298,267; the copper production was 15,000,000 pounds. The number of cattle in the Territory is about 280,000 head, an increase of 300 per cent in the past three years. He speaks of the presence of the Apache Indians as a constant menace to good order, a source of continual apprehension, and a drawback to settlement. He renews previous suggestions contained in the messages of his predecessors respecting needed changes in the laws governing the Territory.

WALL STREET EXCITED.

The Semi-Panic in the New York Stock Market.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The demoralization in the New York stock market is creating great excitement here. The offices of Schwartz & Dupe, J. T. Lester & Co. and other large brokers are packed to the doors with excited throngs of speculators and investors watching the posting of quotations with apprehension.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The stock market opened weak and the entire list was raised throughout the morning, causing an unusually sharp falling off in figures. At noon quotations showed a drop of 1 to 13 per cent, but there was a subsequent recovery of 1 to 2 per cent on reports that a combination of capitalists had been formed to check the downward movements and to sustain values. At the time of writing the market was steady.

A FEARFUL BRUTE.

His Ferocious Assault Upon Dining-Room Girls.

ROCK ISLAND, Oct. 16.—Last midnight the bed-room of three dining-room girls of the Rock Island House was entered by an unknown scoundrel, who, on his base proposals being repulsed, drew a knife, and attacked the girls. They struggled for some time and finally escaped by jumping out of the third story window to the pavement below. They were all badly hurt and one is not expected to live. The brute is in custody.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

While Running Rapidly a Railway Locomotive Explodes.

OSKALOOSA, Ia., Oct. 17.—A frightful catastrophe resulted from the explosion of the boiler of a freight locomotive within five miles of this city. The entire train of nineteen cars was thrown from the track by the concussion while running at a high rate of speed. The cars toppled over on both sides of the track and were all demolished. Nothing tangible remains of the engine or of the engineer and fireman, names unknown, who were in the cab and were blown to atoms, pieces of their bodies being found in all directions. The conductor of the train and one brakeman, who were in the caboose, were fatally injured. The financial loss to the railroad company will exceed $30,000.

A Speck of Railroad War.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 17.—A special to the Times from Connellsville, Pa., says: A speck of railroad war darkened the peaceful horizon of Connellsville to-day. The Baltimore & Ohio Company finished laying a double track last night on ground belonging to the Borough. The Council at noon to-day put a large force of men to work to remove this track, and they were interfered with by the B. & O. people, who ordered out several hundred workmen from their shops with engines to hold possession of the track. At two o'clock the Borough made another attack and were again repulsed, but succeeded in arresting five of the railroaders. At three o'clock when the Borough people were preparing for another attack, a telegram from T. M. King, General Superintendent of the B. & O., suggesting a meeting with the Council to-morrow, to settle the matter amicably.

Lynching in North Carolina.

STATESVILLE, N. C., Oct. 17.—A white man named John Redman and a negro named Charles Campbell, got into a difficulty as the result of an old feud. Campbell fired three shots, the second killing Redman instantly. The first struck a bystander inflicting a painful, though not serious wound. Campbell was arrested and placed in jail. Late Monday night a party of thirty unknown men took Campbell from jail and hung him to a tree a half mile out of town. The lynchers did their work so quietly that but few of the inhabitants of the town knew of it until this morning, when the lifeless body of Campbell was discovered.

An "Ad" for Lillian.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 17.—Miss Lillian Spencer, the actress, arrived at her home to-day. She has recovered from her attack of insanity and will rejoin her company to-night. She came here to see her mother and her baby who are ill.

A DESPATCH from Lexington to the Cincinnati Evening Post says: "It is now believed that the whole story connected with the Ashland horror will soon be brought to light. George Ellis, Wm. Neal, and Ellis Craft were probably the dupes of another man, and he wealthy, of Boyd county. Your reporter has seen a certain note of hand given in 1881 by George Ellis to this rich person, the note bearing several credits and a receipt in full. That this is a valuable link in the circumstances surrounding the murder is most probably true, because Ellis was a poor old man, and could not have borrowed $200 from any one man at a time, unless he gave good security, and there is no evidence of such on the note. Light is again breaking on the tragedy, and I believe the mystery will soon be cleared up entirely."

An Old Skipper's Conversion.

St. Louis Times.

A boat spent several days aground, and all attempts at getting her afloat proved futile. The boat's bow rested on the bar, but the stern was in deep water. After breaking all the spars and lines the crew became exhausted, and gave up in despair. The old skipper was in a fix. To remain in that unpleasant position would result in great loss. Something must be done. He paced the decks in deep meditation for some minutes, when a thought struck him. A camp meeting was being held on the bank of the river, a few miles distant. He dispatched several of his crew in a yawl, with orders to inform the leaders of the meeting that he had got religion, and wanted them to come and pray for him. The news that this wicked old boatman—as he was called—had got religion flew through the camp like lightning, and all repaired to the boat. As they came on board, on the stages, which, in the meantime, had been rigged to the bluff-bar, the captain stood on the fore-castle, and greeting each with a smile, said, "Back aft, gentlemen, the meeting back aft." Presently the extra weight on the stern caused the boat to swing clear, when the captain rushed back, and yelled, "The meeting is over, gentlemen, the meeting is over! Damn it! get ashore."

The contributions of the churches in Kentucky have increased fifty-five per cent. in the past year.

Revs. R. W. Clelland and R. F. Caldwell were received into the Presbytery of Ebenezer at its session in Lexington.

The addresses delivered at the Presbyterian Centennial at Harrodsburg, will be published and offered for sale as speedily as possible.

The remains of Rev. Father Rice, who established Presbyterianism in this State an hundred years ago, at Harrod's Station, are buried in Green county. The two synods have resolved to remove them to Danville and erect a suitable monument to his memory.

Many forget that the hair and scalp need cleansing as well as the hands and feet. Extensive use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has proven that it is the best cleansing agent for the hair—that it prevents as well as removes dandruff, cools and soothes the scalp, and stimulates the hair to renewed growth and beauty.

A peculiar virtue in Ayer's Sarsaparilla is that while it cleanses and purges the blood from all corruptions and impurities, and thereby roots out all diseases, it builds up and invigorates the whole system, and makes one young again.

Maysville and Mason County Bible Society.

MAYSVILLE, Oct. 16, 1883.

The American Bible Society is now engaged in the fourth general supply of bibles in the United States. This means that a Bible or New Testament shall be placed in every home, and as far as practicable, in the hands of every person who can read the holy scriptures.

Mason county has heretofore always done this work in her own borders, through the agency of our local society, and with funds furnished by the christian people of this county. Those who are destitute but are able to buy, we hope, purchase for themselves; those who are destitute but not able to buy—and the number is greater than we are in the habit of estimating—must be supplied. To do this requires voluntary contributions from the friends of the cause.

Upon the recommendation of Dr. Savage, district Superintendent, Rev. Mr. Caywood has been appointed the colporteur and bible distributor for this county. He has entered upon this work and is expected to visit every house. He will not attempt to force God's holy word upon the unworthy, but is expected diligently to search for and supply all the destitute.

He will distribute only the scriptures without note or comment, as published by the American Bible Society. He will sell only at cost price.

We recommend him to the hospitality and christian co-operation of the good people of Mason county; we commend his cause to the contributions of all who desire the universal distribution of the holy scriptures, especially in our highly favored and wealthy county.

JAMES BARBOUR, President.
W. C. SADLER, Secretary.

Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 15, 1883.

Ed. Bulletin: Knowing the solicitude which will be felt by the friends of beneficiaries from Mason and adjoining counties, at the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, at this place, in consequence of the prevalence of small-pox in the institution, I write this note to request you to say in your paper that there have been five cases—all girls. Three of them have died and the other two are getting well. There has been no new cases since the 8th, a week ago to-day. None of these were from our section of the State. It is thought improbable that there will be any other cases in the home in view of the fact that those attacked were immediately removed to the Eruptive Hospital, the fact that so great a time has elapsed since the last one to take it home authorities are taking every precaution and are exerting themselves to the utmost to prevent the further progress of the disease. How the disease originated or whence it came to the home is an unsolved mystery. Another strange circumstance is that the children attacked were all successfully vaccinated (as it was believed) last spring. Yours truly,

W. N. HOWE.

SHERMAN'S VIEW.

He Tells Why the Republicans
Lost Ohio.

Wool and Prohibition at the Bottom of the Trouble—Sherman's View of Prohibition—Prospects For the Presidential Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Of the Ohio election, Senator Sherman says: "The Republicans were defeated because of the prohibition question and the law reducing the tariff on wool. The outlook was favorable until about three weeks before the election when the extraordinary efforts of the women and others interested in the prohibition issue alarmed a great many persons who would otherwise have voted the Republican ticket, and caused them to vote against it, and many Germans feared the loss of their property, while other voters refused to favor legislation of that kind."

"How much did the wool tariff reduction affect the result?"

"I think it lost the party at least 10,000 votes. There would have been still a greater loss from that cause if we had not succeeded in proving the insincerity and falsehoods of the Democrats in regard to the subject. The contest was not decided on national matters, but wholly on local issues."

"What will be the effect on the election of next year?"

"There is not the slightest doubt that Ohio will give a good majority for the Republican National ticket. It is a sure Republican State upon national issues."

"Will the Democrats repeal the Scott law?"

"They are in a quandary. In some respects it is probably a good thing that the Democrats have control of the Legislature. They will hardly dare to repeal the Scott law, and yet if they refuse to do so they will be in a bad situation with their supporters, but if they should repeal it they would be in a still worse position."

"How do you regard the outlook for electing a Republican President next year?"

"It is good. But we can not assume the responsibility in any State of passing prohibitory legislation. Personally, I do not care for spirituous liquors, and would be willing to see them swept away. But there are many Republicans who would not. A wide latitude must be permitted to people in such matters."

Will Be Hanged.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Governor has refused to interfere in the case of Hovey, convicted of the murder of his sister-in-law, and he will accordingly be hanged Friday morning next.

HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful re-storator of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR

RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
